

Patient Responsibilities

- Provide the surgery center with a complete medical history, present complaints and other matters related to your health.
- Ask questions if instructions, procedures or other information are not understood.
- Follow the plan of treatment and instructions recommended by your physician and other professionals responsible for your care.
- Accept consequences of your actions if you fail to follow the plan of treatment.
- Show respect and consideration for other patients, families and visitors of the surgery center.